

Bogotá stands out for traditional sites like La Candelaria district, the monumental Plaza de Bolívar, the Gold Museum, and Monserrate Peak. Tour these marvelous sites through these images.

Modern Bogotá has buildings like the Virgilio Barco Library, various shopping malls, and the T-Zone, an area of excellent restaurants and cafés. Just a few kilometers away from the city, tourists enjoy the famous Andrés Carne de Res Restaurant, the Zipaquirá Salt Cathedral, and the salt mines near the town of Nemocón.