Calle del Recuerdo in Guatapé

AJust 20 minutes from Medellín , a variety of landscapes in the form of forests, high plateaus, and reservoirs begins to be seen. The area is characterized by typical villages where parks are an ideal spot to spend some time and savor the exquisite typical dishes of paisa cuisine, naturally accompanied by the delicious, traditional aguardiente (sugar cane spirits).

El Carmen del Viboral: This is considered the most important artisan center for hand painted ceramics. The famous "vajillas del Carmen" (Carmen dish sets) stand out. The floors and facades of one of the town's main streets were renovated with ceramic pieces, thus generating cultural and educational dynamics in the urban space.

Guatapé and El Peñol Reservoir

The Guatapé and El Peñol Reservoir: It is one of the largest in South America, and perfect for outdoor sports, fishing, and nautical activities. You will be amazed at the Piedra del Peñol, an enormous monolith that may be climbed for enjoying an incomparable view of the architecture, balconies, and house plinths of the municipality of Guatapé.

The Guatapé Pier: This walkway runs parallel to the reservoir. It is the spot for the arrival and departure of the boats and floating restaurants that navigate the reservoir, as well as the perfect place from which to admire the beauty of the landscape reflected on the water. There you may walk, relax, and enjoy a varied gastronomic offer, without forgetting to stroll on the "Calle del Recuerdo", where the colorful facades of the houses are decked with the traditional house plinths that capture the attention of all visitors.
