

Ever since colonial times, the department of Huila and its capital, Neiva, celebrate the festivities of San Juan and San Pedro – a large cultural sample full of music, dance, and costume parades. It is there, in Neiva, where the tourist can appreciate the best dancers of bambuco, a traditional dance of the Andes, characterized by the elegance of its movements and precious, colorful dresses.

{gallery}galeria/bambuco{/gallery}