Become acquainted with this incredible, colorful feast that takes place every August in $\frac{\text{Medelli}}{\text{Elower Fair}}$. The is homage to the silleteros, the men and women of the township of Santa Elena who normally carry the fruits of their labor on their backs. At fair time, they turn the fruits into beautiful original flower creations.