

Beautiful seascapes of crystalline waters ideal for water sports.

The Islands of Rosario archipelago is a small complex of islands that faces the island of Barú, about an hour away from the city by boat.

The islands are a natural park that belongs to the Nation, although several of them have been rented by private citizens and offer food and lodging.