

The Palacio de Exposiciones has four indoor pavilions in 12,000 m² where up to 500 stands can be mounted. It has a similar area for outdoor exhibits, an ample conference room, a VIP salon, a food court, a registration area, and 530 parking spaces.

Services Portfolio

Considered one of the most important spaces for fairs and exhibits.

Plaza Mayor rents space for the development of open fairs for specific publics, exhibits, conventions, events, business rounds, and the launching of products and commercial samples.

Two restaurants and eight cafeterias operate permanently. However, additional spaces may be used for food services as required.

The convention center offers state-of-the-art audiovisual equipment, lighting, and ventilation. Every salon has wireless connections to the internet, audiovisual aids, and giant screens. Additional, there are five cabins for simultaneous translation that can be used for independent events.

A post office, a pharmacy, photocopying, a business center, medical services, and several shops are additional services. The Palacio de Exposiciones has 550 parking spaces, and the convention center, an additional 280, a total of 830.
