

Santander: a center for sports and adventure

Framed by a stream and the Fonce River, this is the port of arrival of canoe and raft adventurers.

Chicamicha Canyon and the Chicamocha National Park

Very close to the Chicamocha Canyon, this 8,600-hectare area has been devoted to tourist adventure activities like paragliding, rafting, cable flying, hiking trails, horseback rides, buggy tracks, and wall climbing, all in the midst of awesome scenery. A land that is second-to-none in adventure.

Golf

With three spectacular 18-hole golf courses designed by Nicklaus and Mark Mahannah, golf experiences are unparalleled. In an ideal climate and surrounded by beautiful landscapes, the people of Santander will make you want to repeat your golf experience on these courses

If sport and adventure is what you are looking for. Be sure to read:

- Santander, destination
- Los Estoraques
- Rural tourism at Santander